

March 13, 7-9 pm, Napa Valley Writers Presents
Storytelling: An Interactive Workshop

Napa Valley Writers will host Kate Farrell, who will discuss taking our storytelling from the page to the spoken word in order to create a shared experience with your listeners.

The power of story immediately engages audiences through simple, traditional techniques anyone can learn. Some of the takeaways will include:

- Seven steps to storytelling
- Uses of narrative in public speaking
- Single story narrative as the structure of the talk
- Storyboard as a memory aide for telling or speaking
- Delivery skills and techniques: Group activity

Kate is an author, librarian, and storyteller, having written numerous, educational materials on storytelling, edited the anthology, Wisdom Has a Voice: Every Daughter's Memories of Mother (2011), co-edited the award-winning anthology, Times They Were A-Changing: Women Remember the '60s & '70s (2013) and co-edited, the award-winning Cry of the Nightbird: Writers Against Domestic Violence (2014). Her Work-in-Progress is a collection of original stories in the fabulist genre, Woman Wonder Tales, and a novella, Strange Beauty, published by Smashwords (2018). She is Past President of WNBA SF Chapter and a CWC member.

Lance Burris will be March's member reader.
