

April 10, 7-9 pm, Napa Valley Writers Presents
Local High School Writing Contest Winners!

Napa Valley Writers will host the winners of this year's local high school writing contest.

Juniors and Seniors at Napa High School and Vintage High School were invited in February to write up to 2,000 words of fiction or non-fiction about the topic "Change."

Our committee; Lenore Hirsch, Peggy Prescott, and Kathy Chance; have read and rated the entries. They have selected excellent writing from both schools to honor at our April Napa Valley Writers meeting.

Selected students are invited to bring their families and teachers to our meeting. Our program that night will be readings by the students, followed by the presentation of certificates and cash awards.

We'll also celebrate with some special refreshments. Please join us for this very special part of what we do as a group of writers: educate and encourage young writers.

.

Napa Valley Writers, a branch of the California Writers Club, holds monthly meetings at Napa Valley Unitarian Universalists Church Sanctuary, 1625 Salvador Avenue, Napa. Cost at the door: $8 for guests, $5 for CWC members. Students with ID, free. For more information, contact publicity_nvww@outlook.com or see napavalleywriters.net. Always open to the public.

NVW fosters professionalism in writing, promotes networking of writers within the Napa Valley writing community, mentors new writers, and provides literary support for writers and the writing community through education, networking, and leadership.

###