November 11, 7-9 pm, Napa Valley Writers Presents:

Writing Outside the Box

https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_IPzoJVtUQZyGVoVieUZ_0g

Napa Valley Writers will host Linda Loveland Reid, who will speak to us about how to write our best work. The results of writing can be crazy weird, amen-astonishing, way captivating - or dull.

Do you ever skip a paragraph because you already know what it says? This is called cliché-writing.

So, how do we...

- Produce stimulating character introductions?
- Write captivating descriptive paragraphs?
- Spin dialogue that enraptures our reader?
- Learn to identify and destroy “crutch” words?

We want readers to gobble up every sentence. It's easy once you know where the sink-holes await.

Linda is the author of two published novels. Her stories, memoirs, essays and poems are published in over a dozen anthologies and magazines. Linda is past president of Redwood Writers and a recipient of the prestigious Jack London Award.
